SOUTHERN HIGH DISTILLERY

The logo for Southern High Distillery is rendered in a warm, golden-brown color. It features the brand name in a stylized, hand-drawn font. The word "SOUTHERN" is in a tall, condensed serif font, while "HIGH" is in a similar but slightly more rounded font. Below these, the word "DISTILLERY" is written in a smaller, clean sans-serif font, set within a decorative, flowing banner that curves under the "HIGH" text. To the left of the main text is a stylized cannabis leaf with seven serrated leaves. The entire design is set against a plain white background.
